Dear Jemal

My last training video received over 1000 views. This one is the best yet - by far. It's 48 awesome minutes! I'll be the first to admit that one of the most challenging tasks as funding expert is to come-up with great proposal ideas. However, when you apply one of the two simple methods like i do, great ideas always get born...always! The secret is to exploit the group dynamics of your team or of your organisation and clients effectively by respecting theirs and your time.

To help you take advantage of group dynamics and come up with great proposal ideas that lead to successful proposals for funding, I've created this special FREE video.

LOOK. Some people will sit and watch an hour of TV or browse in web or in sports/news sites and all that happens for them is they feel more bored. On the other hand, this is an hour of TRAINING that will improve your business as a funding expert as well as your lifestyle. So watch it! Comment on it! Share it!

You'll discover:

the 7 myths in exploiting successfully european funds

Why the current methods and practices fail in coming up with great proposal ideas

How to exploit the brain of your colleagues and/or your clients and come up with excellent proposal ideas

Two ways in developing great ideas that lead to successful proposals in european funding (this strategy will be the talk of the funding industry for months)
